

35th Annual Nonpoint Source Conference

April 9-10, 2025

Call for Abstracts is Open!

The 35th Annual Nonpoint \(NPS\) Source Conference will take place on April 9-10, 2025, at the Harraseeket Inn in Freeport, Maine. Join us for two days of engaging discussions, presentations, and networking opportunities around nonpoint source pollution management and information.

The conference theme is “Nonpoint Source Pollution and Clean Water: Perspectives from the Arts, Sciences and Humanities.” Abstract submissions that focus on the following topics are encouraged, but not limited to:

- Art (both session speakers and local artists display)
- Communication and social marketing
- Engaging communities in watershed restoration and protection
- Using technology to document problems, monitor progress, and tell our stories
- Best management practices with climate co-benefits
- Environmental justice
- Presentation Challenge: For a special and limited session, we invite dynamic speakers to use their imagination and present a NPS Success Story (a Type 1 restoration story) using only easily interpreted visuals and images.

The call for abstracts for the conference is currently open. Multiple presentation formats are encouraged including:

- 30 Minute Presentation
- Workshop/Panel Discussion (1 hour)
- Poster
- Artwork
